Part A – Copyright Transfer Form

NOTE: Company or other forms may not be substituted for this form. U.S. Government employees whose work is not subject to copyright may so certify by signing Part B below.

The undersigned, desiring to present and publish the above paper in a publication of the International Test and Evaluation Association or co-sponsored by the International Test and Evaluation Association, hereby transfer their copyrights in the above paper to the International Test and Evaluation Association, known as ITEA.

Returned Rights

In return for these rights, ITEA hereby grants to the above authors, and the employers for whom the work was performed, royalty-free permission to:

1. Retain all proprietary rights other than copyright, such as patent rights.
2. Reuse all or portions of the above paper in other works.
3. Reproduce, or have reproduced, the above paper for the author's personal use or for company use provided that (a) the source and ITEA copyright are indicated, (b) the copies are not used in a way that implies ITEA endorsement of a product or service of an employer, and (c) the copies per se are not offered for sale.
4. Make limited distribution of all or portions of the above paper prior to publication.
5. In the case of work performed under U.S. Government contract, the ITEA grants the U.S. Government royalty-free permission to reproduce all or portions of the above paper, and to authorize others to do so, for U.S. Government purposes.

ITEA Obligations

In exercising its rights under copyright, ITEA will make all reasonable efforts to act in the interests of the authors and employers as well as in its own interest. In particular, ITEA requires that:

1. The consent of the first-named author be sought as a condition in granting republication permission to others.
2. The consent of the undersigned employer be obtained as a condition in granting permission to others to reuse all or portions of the paper for promotion or marketing purposes.

In the event the above paper is not accepted and published by ITEA or is withdrawn by the author(s) before acceptance by ITEA, this agreement becomes null and void.
