Policies and Procedures

1. Payment for Space/Cancellation Policy
Under the terms of the contract, the exhibitor agrees to pay fifty percent (50%) of the total fee with this application, and further agrees to submit to ITEA the balance due upon receipt of statement but in no case later than 30 Days after Receipt of Invoice. It is understood that failure by the exhibitor to remit outstanding balance due ITEA by said date shall render all exhibit agreements between the exhibitor and ITEA invalid and shall constitute forfeiture of all monies paid under terms of the contract. An exhibitor who cancels all or part of reserved booth space prior to 31 January 2021 will forfeit fifty percent (50%) of the deposit.

2. Exhibitor Activities
Exhibitors agree not to assign or sublet any space allotted to them without written agreement with the exposition facility or with authorized contractors employed by show management.

3. Contractor Service Information
In the best interest of the exhibitors, exhibit management has selected certain firms to serve as official contractors to provide various services to the exhibitors. It is agreed that the exhibitor will abide by and comply with rules and regulations concerning local union agreements with the exposition facility or with authorized contractors employed by show management.

4. Security
Guard service will NOT be provided by exhibit management during the hours the show is closed. Each exhibitor should make provisions to safeguard his or her goods from the time they are placed in the booth until the time they are removed. ITEA will not be responsible for loss or damage due to any cause. Do not leave laptop computers or other valuable equipment in the exhibit hall unattended; exhibit management will not be responsible for loss or damage.

5. No dismantling will be permitted before closing time.
It is expressly agreed by the exhibitor that in the event he or she fails to install or replace products in his or her exhibit space, or fails to pay the space rental at the time specified, exhibit management shall have the right to take possession of said space and lease same or any part thereof to such parties and upon such terms and conditions as it may deem proper.

6. Use of Exhibit Space
Exhibitors agree not to assign or sublet any space allotted to them without written consent of exhibit management, nor to display or advertise goods other than those manufactured or carried by them in the regular course of business.

7. Restrictions
Exhibit management reserves the right to restrict exhibits which are objectionable because of noise, glaring or flashing lights, method of operation or any other reason, and also to prohibit or evict any exhibit which, in the opinion of exhibit management, may detract from the general character of the exhibition. This reservation includes persons, things, conduct, printed matter or anything exhibit management may determine to be objectionable. In the event of such restriction or eviction, exhibit management is not liable for any refund of any amount paid hereunder. No display material exposing an unfinished surface to neighboring booths will be permitted. Demonstrations must be so located that crowds collected will be within the exhibitor’s space, and not blocking aisles or neighboring exhibits. Contests of any kind must first be approved in writing by exhibit management.

8. Exhibitor Activities
Company/Exhibitor agrees not to schedule or conduct any outside activity including, but not limited to, receptions, seminars, symposia and hospitality suites that are in conflict with the official program.

9. Responsibility
If the exhibitor fails to comply in any respect with the terms of this agreement, exhibit management shall have the right, without notice to the exhibitor, to offer said space to another exhibitor, or to use said space in any other manner. This shall not be construed as affecting the responsibility of the exhibitor to pay the full amount specified by the contract.

10. Compliance
The exhibitor assumes all responsibility for compliance with all pertinent ordinances, regulations and codes of duly authorized local, state and federal governing bodies concerning fire, safety, health, together with the rules and regulations of the operators and/or owners of the property wherein the exhibit is held. Cloth decorations must be flameproof. Wiring must comply with fire department and underwriters’ rules.

11. Liability
ITEA shall not be responsible for any loss, theft or damage to the property of the exhibitor, its employees, or representatives. Further, exhibit management will not be liable for damage or injury to persons or property during the term of this agreement from any cause whatsoever by reason of the use or occupancy of the exhibit space by the exhibitor or his assigns, and the exhibitor shall indemnify and hold harmless exhibit management from all liability, which might ensue from any cause whatsoever, if the exhibitor’s material fails to arrive, the exhibitor is nevertheless responsible for all amounts due hereunder. The exhibitor assumes the entire responsibility and liability for losses, damages and claims arising out of injury or damage to exhibitor’s displays, equipment and other property brought upon the premises and shall indemnify and hold harmless the Hotel agents, servants and employees from any and all such losses, damages and claims. Exhibitors are advised to carry special insurance to cover exhibit material against damage and loss, and public liability insurance against injury to the person or property of others.

12. Cancellation or Termination of Exposition
In the event that the premises where the exposition is to be held shall, in the sole determination of exhibit management, become unfit or unavailable for occupancy, or shall be substantially interfered with, by reason of picketing, strike, embargo, injunction, act of war, terrorism, act of God, fire or state of emergency declared by any government agency or by reason of any municipal, state or federal law or regulation or by reason of any other occurrence beyond the control of exhibit management, exhibit management may cancel or terminate the exposition.

13. Management
Exhibit management reserves the right to interpret, amend and enforce these regulations as it deems proper to assure the success of the exposition.

14. CAN-SPAM Act Compliance
ITEA exhibitors that use e-mail to contact attendees must abide by the 3 basic types of compliance as defined in the CAN-SPAM Act: Unsubscribe compliance; Content compliance; and, Sending Behavior compliance.

Unsubscribe compliance
- A visible and operable unsubscribe mechanism is present in all emails.
- Consumer opt-out requests are honored within 10 business days.
- Opt-out lists also known as Suppression lists are only used for compliance purposes.

Content compliance
- Accurate “From” lines (including “friendly froms”). Relevant subject lines (relative to offer in body content and not deceptive)

A legitimate physical address of the publisher and/or advertiser is present. PO Box addresses are acceptable in compliance with 16 C.F.R.316.2(p) and if the email is sent by a third party, the legitimate physical address of the entity, whose products or services are promoted through the email should be visible.
- A label is present if the content is adult.

Sending behavior compliance
- A message cannot be sent through an open relay. A message cannot be sent without an unsubscribe option.
- A message cannot be sent to a harvested email address. A message cannot contain a false header.
- A message should contain at least one sentence.
- A message cannot be null.
- Unsubscribe option should be below the message.

NOTE: There are no restrictions against an ITEA exhibitor and sponsor emailing its existing customer base who has previously agreed to receive information about its products or services, even if those individuals have not given permission, as these messages are classified as “relationship” messages under CAN-SPAM. But when sending unsolicited commercial emails, it must be stated that the email is an advertisement or a marketing solicitation. Note that recipients who have signed up to receive commercial messages from you are exempt from this rule.
