

BIOGRAPHY

AIR FORCE OPERATIONAL TEST & EVALUATION CENTER

GS-14, KEITH SANDERS

Mr. Keith Sanders is the Technical Advisor for AFOTEC Detachment 5, Edwards Air Force Base, California. As the senior civilian for Detachment 5, he provides continuity for all detachment test programs, operations and personnel in the Bomber, Mobility, and C2ISR Divisions. He manages detachment technical content and provides technical advice and guidance to personnel. Technical expertise includes: operational test and evaluation, test design, planning, execution, reporting, reliability and maintainability analysis, and program management.

EDUCATION

- 1980 Bachelor of Science, Georgia Institute of Technology, Ga.
- 1981 Officer Training School, Medina Complex, Lackland AFB, Texas
- 1994 Master of Science, University of Southern California, Calif.

CAREER CHRONOLOGY

1. February 1981 – March 1985, Structures Engineer, 6520 TG, Edwards AFB, Calif.
2. March 1985 – September 1995, Structures/Systems Branch Chief, B-2 Test Program, Edwards AFB, Calif.
3. September 1995 – September 1996, PF&Q Branch Chief, 416 FLTS Edwards AFB, Calif.
4. September 1996 – January 2000, Project Manager, B-2 Test Program, Edwards AFB, Calif.
5. January 2000 – March 2002, Commander's Action Group, Edwards AFB, Calif.
6. March 2002 – Present, Technical Advisor, AFOTEC, Detachment 5, Edwards AFB, Calif.

(Current as of April 2022)